Received Date 03/06/2018	Priority Date	Applicant A131 268 929 GUANQI YU
Notice Date 05/07/2018	Page 1 of 1

GUANQI YU 4601 BAYARD STREET APT 301 PITTSBURGH PA 15213	Notice Type: Approval Notice Class: C03B Valid from 06/20/2018 to 06/19/2019
--	---

We have approved your application for employment authorization. We will send your Employment Authorization Document (EAD) (also known as an EAD card or Form I-766) to you separately.

Your EAD card is proof that you are allowed to work in the United States. Show the card to your employer to verify your authorization to work during the dates on the card. You cannot use this approval notice as proof of your employment authorization.

When you receive your EAD card, please check that all the information on the card is correct. If you need to change any information on the card, please mail all of the following to the office listed below:

- A letter explaining what information needs to be corrected,
- Your EAD card,
- A photocopy of this notice, and
- Evidence to show what the correct information should be. For example, if you need to correct your name, submit a copy of your birth certificate or official name change.

If You Have a Pending Form I-485

If you have a pending or approved Form I-140 and a pending Form I-485, you may request to change employers if your Form I-485 has been pending for at least 180 days. In order to do so, you need to submit documentation about your new job offer. For more information on how to request a change of employers and what information you must submit, please visit the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov.

If your EAD card expires before we make a final decision on your Form I-485, you may apply for a new EAD card.

THIS FORM IS NOT A VISA AND MAY NOT BE USED IN PLACE OF A VISA OR EVIDENCE OF EMPLOYMENT AUTHORIZATION.

NOTICE: Although this application or petition has been approved, USCIS and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security reserve the right to verify this information before and/or after making a decision on your case so we can ensure that you have complied with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and other legal authorities. We may review public information and records, contact others by mail, the internet or phone, conduct site inspections of businesses and residences, or use other methods of verification. We will use the information obtained to determine whether you are eligible for the benefit you seek. If we find any derogatory information, we will follow the law in determining whether to provide you (and the legal representative listed on your Form G-28, if you submitted one) an opportunity to address that information before we make a formal decision on your case or start proceedings.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FOR APPLICANT/PETITIONER

Please save this Form I-797, Notice of Action (approval notice) for your records. Please note that simply filing an application, petition or request, or having an approved petition does not give the person it was filed for (also known as the beneficiary) permission to legally enter the United States. It also does not grant any legal immigration status.

Include a copy of this notice if you:

- Write to USCIS or a U.S. Consulate about your case or
- File another application or petition with USCIS based on this decision.

USCIS will notify you separately about any other applications or petitions you have filed.

Inquiries

If you have questions about your application or petition, you may:

- Go to <https://egov.uscis.gov/casestatus> to check your case status online.
- Call the National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283.
- Telecommunications Device for the Deaf (TDD): 1-800-767-1833.
- Send us a letter and include a copy of this notice.
- Schedule an appointment at a local USCIS office using InfoPass at <https://infopass.uscis.gov>.

If you filed Form I-907, Request for Premium Processing Service, and you have any questions about your application or petition, please follow the instructions for contacting the Premium Processing Unit printed on the receipt notice we mailed you.

APPROVAL OF A NONIMMIGRANT PETITION

If we approved a nonimmigrant petition, it means that the beneficiary is eligible for the requested nonimmigrant classification. If this notice says that we are notifying a U.S. Consulate about the approval for the purpose of issuing a visa, contact the appropriate U.S. Consulate directly if you or the beneficiary has questions about the process.

APPROVAL OF AN IMMIGRANT PETITION

An approved immigrant petition does not grant any legal immigration status or guarantee that the beneficiary will receive a visa or an adjustment of status. The approved petition means the beneficiary can:

- Apply for an immigrant or fiancé(e) visa if he or she is outside the United States, or
- Apply for adjustment of status as a permanent resident if he or she is already in the United States.

If this notice states we approved your immigrant petition and forwarded it to the National Visa Center (NVC), the NVC will directly contact the beneficiary with information about how to apply for a visa. If any changes occur that could affect visa eligibility, visit the NVC website at <http://nvc.state.gov/ask> to find contact information and a public inquiry form.

Please Protect Your Card.

Additional Information About Your Card

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) issues several kinds of cards for different purposes. Please read the information in this notice on how to use your card. If you are 18 years of age or older, you are required to carry your Employment Authorization Document or Permanent Resident Card or other proof of alien registration in the United States with you at all times so it is available when needed. If you received a Permanent Resident Card or Combination Employment Authorization and Advance Parole Card (combo card), you should take it with you when you travel outside the United States so you can show it to a Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Officer upon your return to a U.S. port of entry. If you forget to take your card or lose it while traveling outside the United States, contact the nearest U.S. Embassy or consulate for travel assistance.

Permanent Resident Card

Your card has an expiration date.

- If you are a conditional resident, you should apply to remove the conditions 90 days before your card expires.
- If you are a permanent resident, the expiration date does not affect your status, but you should use Form I-90, Application to Replace Permanent Resident Card, to apply for a new card as early as 6 months before your card expires.

As a permanent resident, you should be aware that:

- If your card is lost, stolen, or becomes damaged, or your name or other information shown on your card changes, use Form I-90 to apply for a new card.
- If you are going to travel and believe you may be outside of the United States for a year or more, you should apply for a reentry permit. You must be physically present in the United States when you file the reentry permit application and complete the biometrics services requirement. See Form I-131, Application for Travel Document, for information.
- You can sponsor the immigration of certain relatives. See Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, for information.
- Permanent residents can apply to become American citizens after a certain period of residence in the United States. Usually, you have to be a permanent resident for 5 years, but in some circumstances you can apply earlier. See Form M-476, A Guide to Naturalization, or visit the Citizenship Resource Center at www.uscis.gov/citizenship.

USCIS has a guide for new permanent residents called "Welcome to the United States: A Guide for New Immigrants." It has important information about your rights and responsibilities. The guide is available at www.uscis.gov/newimmigrants in English and a variety of languages.

Employment Authorization Document (EAD)

You are authorized to work consistent with any conditions shown on the card until it expires.

- If you apply for a job, you may show your card to the employer to show that you are authorized to work while the card is valid. Employers may accept the new card as a List A document when completing the Employment Eligibility Verification (Form I-9).
- If you are already employed and this card extends your employment authorization, you may show this new card to your employer to show that your work authorization has been extended.

Your EAD may also serve as evidence of your immigration status. In other cases, your EAD may show that you have a pending application for an immigration benefit that authorizes employment while the application is pending.

You may apply for a new EAD if your current card expires before USCIS makes a final decision on your: Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status; Form I-881, Application for Suspension of Deportation or Special Rule Cancellation of Removal; Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal; or other pending application that allows for employment while your application is pending. Please refer to the instructions for Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization Document, at www.uscis.gov.

Combination Employment Authorization and Advance Parole Card

Your Combination Employment Authorization and Advance Parole Card (combo card) serves as both an employment authorization document and an advance parole document while your Form I-485 is pending with USCIS. See the information above relating to employment authorization.

Your combo card also allows you to seek parole into the United States upon returning from travel outside of the United States. You should take your combo card with you when you travel outside the United States so you can present it to a CBP Officer at a U.S. port of entry to seek parole upon your return. Please see the instructions for Form I-131 and the enclosed Form I-931, which provide important additional information about using an advance parole document for travel.

Questions

If you ever have questions about immigration benefits and procedures or wish to have an application mailed to you, please call our National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 or check our Website at www.uscis.gov.
